

SEARCH AND RESCUE K9 TEAM AIRCRAFT TRAINING

PHOTO COURTESY OF LIEUTENANT PETER BREMY

Recently, the K9 Team of all-volunteer New Jersey Search and Rescue, Inc., conducted an aircraft training session at Greenwood Lake Airport. Pictured left to right are West Milford Town Councilman James Warden, who provided the services of his airplane, and himself as pilot for the event; Lt. Peter Brey and dog Boomerang; Robert Langendoen and his dog Micah; and Sue Lavoie and her dog Summer. The K9 Team provides search and rescue (SAR) services for lost or missing persons, forensic, cadaver and evidence searches, drowning victims and disasters. Currently all the dog handlers are West Milford residents. For more information, visit njsar.org, or e-mail k9@njsar.org or info@njsar.org.
